2010 Summer Reading Program Guidelines

The Summer Reading Program is an annual event sponsored by the Texas State Library to promote books and reading among young people from preschool through high school. The W. Walworth Harrison Public Library in Greenville, Texas, encourages everyone to read for pleasure throughout the year.

The 2010 Summer Reading Program's theme for ages 2-12 is "Catch the Reading Express!" and for ages 13-18 the TTR.10 Texas Teens Read theme is "This Summer Express Yourself @ the library!" Registration begins at 9:00am on Saturday, June 5th at the W. Walworth Harrison Public Library during our Summer Kick-off Fun Fest (9:00am – noon) and at 1:00pm on Tuesday, June 22nd at the Boys & Girls Club.

Once again we will have a satellite location at The Boys & Girls Club, 4320 Lee Street where registered participants can use the lending library and attend program and reading activities.

The SRP Boys & Girls Club events will run June 22nd through July 15th: Tuesdays 1:00pm-2:00pm (Pre K to Second Grade) and 2:00pm - 3:00pm (Third Grade and older); Thursday reading activities at 1:00pm (Pre K & older) and special programs with performers at 2:00pm (all ages).

Listed below are guidelines for participation:

In order to become an official participant, you must register at the Public Library or The Boys & Girls Club, and pick up a reading log. Participants will record time reading or being read to on their reading log. Separate reading logs are available for ages 2-6, 7-12, and 13-18. After reaching Level 1 participants will receive SRP Extravaganza ticket, treats, a certificate, and be entered in our grand prize drawings. Participants can earn an additional grand prize entry ticket by completing reading levels 2 and 3.

A SRP Extravaganza will be held Saturday, July 17th for all participants who have earned a SRP Extravaganza ticket. Reading logs must be turned in no later than 3:00 pm on Thursday, July 15th at the Boys and Girls Club and no later than 6:00pm on Friday, July 16th at the W. Walworth Harrison Public Library to receive a SRP Extravaganza party ticket.

NOTE: Reading Log information will be released to reader's school campus upon school districts request for reward purposes.

Adults 18 and older can join us for the Third Annual Adult Summer Reading Program as we challenge the adults in Greenville to Read A Million Pages over the course of the summer! Runs: April 1 - Sept. 30.

Please call 903-457-2992 for additional information or log on to our website www.greenville.lib.tx.us

We look forward to your participation in 2010!
