

The Greenville farmers market will be open on Saturday, May 30 from 9 to noon. Please practice social distancing and strongly consider wearing a mask.

Expected produce: tomatoes, blackberries, strawberries, blueberries, red potatoes, squash, zucchini, beets, onions, garlic, daikon, lettuce, kale, celery tops, onion chives, fresh herbs and microgreens.

Other items: pork, beef, lamb, farm fresh eggs, duck eggs, goose eggs, fresh cut flower bouquets, blackberry & aloe plants, peppermint cuttings, masks, fabric aprons & grocery bags, crocheted crafts, liquid laundry detergent, handmade wooden toys

Honey products: raw & unfiltered, bee pollen, beeswax, creamed, hand salve, lotion, bug repellent bars, lip balm

Breads: honey white, honey whole wheat, sprouted honey whole wheat, KETO, banana walnut

Baked goods: variety of cookies, tea cakes, cakes, brownies, muffins and gluten-free items

The farmers market is located at 2203 Lee Street at market square.

