

Zoning Board of Adjustment

- Meets as needed
- City Council Chambers
2821 Washington St.

- The Zoning Board of Adjustment is a five-member quasi-judicial Board appointed by the City Council whose primary responsibility is to hear and review requests for variances and appeals on matters related to the City of Greenville Zoning Ordinance. It is not a legislative body and does not have authority to amend ordinances or create new laws.
- In addition to the five regular members, the Council may appoint up to four alternative members who may serve in the absence of a regular member. The Board meets as needed to review applications submitted through the Community Development Office.
