

Greenville Police Department

We have spots remaining for our next Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) class (Pic. 1). Learn strategies for risk avoidance and basic physical defense skills, culminating in practical scenarios where you practice using the skills learned to fight off an attacker. There are a total of four classes, and we ask that you be able to attend all four if you sign up. The dates are July 19, 21, 26, and 28, 2022. The classes are from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., on Tuesdays and Thursdays. For more information or to register, please contact Eric Camp at ecamp@ci.greenville.tx.us.

Traffic Division: Crews are working on installing 'No Parking' signs in the CenterPoint and Barling area.

W. Walworth Harrison Public Library

Several members of the W. Walworth Harrison Public Library staff joined the great family event put on by the Boys and Girls Clubs of Northeast Texas on Friday, June 17, at the Greenville SportsPark (Pic. 3). We wish to thank Atmos Energy for providing us with books to give away to children during the event.

Pictured are a few of the 22 mini art kits adult patrons painted and are now on display near the front of the library until July 22 (Pic. 4)! Each submission is part of a contest with excellent prizes; stay tuned for details!

Our Touch a Truck event will begin at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, June 24! All kinds of trucks and vehicles will be on hand. Please use caution when touching them because of the Texas heat!

Join us for Danny's Jukebox Club, which will begin at 6:00 p.m. on Monday, June 27! You will hear a variety of songs and learn the history of many.

Our next Adult Technology Class will be in the Digital Arts Learning Center starting at 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 30. Our topic is Your Topic!

Be sure to watch our humorous Summer Reading Challenge video to find out whether the Youth Readers are still ahead in pages read or if the Adult Readers have moved ahead. Read, read, read, and enjoy your summer! Now is the perfect time to register for our Summer Reading Challenge!

Follow us on Facebook, drop by the Information Desk, or call the library at (903) 457-2992 for information about library programs and services.

Farmer's Market

The Farmer's Market will be open Saturday, June 25, from 9:00 a.m. to noon. Expected produce includes blackberries, blueberries, peaches, tomatoes, potatoes, onions, okra, squash, zucchini, eggplant, greens, cucumbers, kale, and herbs. Other items are eggs, honey, chicken, coffee beans, plants, and a variety of baked goods.

Main Street

Landon Winery hosts a pairing of their wines with a selection of sweet and savory crepes on Friday evening. Tickets are required.

Convention and Visitors Bureau

Over 50 tourism letters went out this week! We send these letters to people around the country who are interested in learning more about visiting Greenville. The leads are generated from TourTexas.com and advertisements in Texas Highways and Texas Monthly.

Greenville Municipal Auditorium (GMA)

Greenville Family Theatre moved into the GMA this week to begin production on their annual musical. This year they will perform Mary Poppins. You don't want to miss this amazing show produced and performed by members of the Greenville community. Get your tickets at ShowtimeAtTheGMA.com.

Parks and Recreation/Greenville Sports League

GSL: Youth soccer practices started this week! Adult kickball games are running Friday night at the SportsPark. We have teams competing at district softball tournaments this week in Mineola, Emory, and Quitman - wish them luck!

Parks Maintenance: We are working on flower beds downtown, mowing/shredding, and landscaping at Austin Park. We're getting equipment ready for Friday's Touch-A-Truck event at the library and prepping the SportsPark for the Bottle Rocket Bash on Monday, July 4!

Golf: This week, we're focused on mowing the greens and tee boxes and watering the fairways. We had 40 players for Bo's Tuesday Morning Scramble!

Reecy Davis: We partnered with the Boys and Girls Club to offer Slime Camp this week. Camp next week will be focused on basketball, and there are open spots for children ages 8 to 12. We're hosting ballet and contemporary dance classes along with the final set of June swim lessons at Splash Kingdom. We're offering a free luncheon and seminar for National Insurance Awareness Day on Tuesday, June 28. Call (903) 457-2994 to register for the seminar.

Special Events:

Bottle Rocket Bash & Firecracker 5k - July 4 - Our July 4 Bottle Rocket Bash is quickly approaching! We have the Big Daddy Band and opener DJ K-Sprinkles for our live entertainment! Fireworks will begin at 9:30 p.m. All music from the event will be live-streamed on 105.9 FM, courtesy of our stage sponsor Ellis Homes - thank you! Reserved parking inside the SportsPark is available by calling (903) 457-2994. There will be free grass parking and shuttles available. Shuttle pickup locations are at PJC, Brookshire's, Reecy Davis, and Creekside Church of Christ (provided by The Connection).
